

Fleet Technician Career Progression

Lube to C Tech

- 36+ Months experience in auto shop
- Complete 3 hydraulic disc pad changes
- Ability to change basic light bulbs including headlights, and taillights
- Basic understanding of electrical systems
- Basic knowledge of Forrest River and Gretch Door Systems
- Basic knowledge of air systems
- Basic knowledge of software/hardware (Fleetio, Samsara, IDS, Diagnostic Scanner, SharePoint)
- Basic knowledge and ability to read schematics

C Tech to B Tech

All Lube and C Tech Requirements Plus:

- Air Conditioning/HVAC Systems Certification
- Advanced knowledge of air systems, including air brakes
- Perform 3 air disc brake pad changes
- Advanced knowledge of electrical systems, including HVAC
- Advanced knowledge of HVAC operations, both Transair and Gretch Systems
- MCI Virtual Classes

B Tech to A Tech

All Class B & C Requirements Plus:

- Mitchell One Shop Management
- Automotive Service Excellence (ASE) (9 different certifications)
- Advanced knowledge and proficient with Allison, Bendix, Cummins Insight, IDS, and Programming Tools
- Expert level electrical troubleshooting
- Expert level run ability and check engine light diagnostics, including emissions systems

We'll Help You Get to The Next Level With:

- + Foundations Brakes Basics
- + MCI Engine & Systems Training
- + Vanhool Engine & Systems Training

We'll Help You Get to The Next Level With:

- + Cummins 83608, 83768, 85467
- + Proterra Tech 1, Proterra Tech 2
- + Cummins Insight Training
- + 609 A/C Certification
- + Foundations Air Brakes Class
- + 36-60 months in auto shop experience

Keep Growing With:

- + Allison Transmission Class
- + Advancement into Leadership Positions

Questions?

Reach out to your manager about advancing in your career progression.